

3rd Annual Jacaranda 10K Saturday Mar 23 2009

Warm and clear conditions greeted Saturday's runners in the 3rd Annual Jacaranda 10K. In a close finish, Sean Wilson of Lahaina was first overall in a time of 45:57 with Paul Hopwood of Makawao second in 46:10. James Franzen of Kula was third in 46:55.

The women's race featured 1999 state 3000 meter runner up Liana Bernard Jenkins and 2009's 3000 meter champ Hailey Grossman. Jenkins, now residing in Oregon, was the first female in 49:53 setting a new course record. Grossman of Pukalani was second in 55:16 and Wailuku 6th grader Kiana Smith was third in 56:01. The Jacaranda 10K is a challenging uphill 6.2 mile climb past scenic pastures and flowering trees, starting at Eddie Tam Gym in Makawao and ending at Upper Kimo Drive in Kula.
